Westminster Orthodox Presbyterian Church is a Bible believing, reformed, family centered church committed to preaching the whole counsel of God and the ordinary means of grace.

Session: Mr. Terry Miller, Mr. Jerold Barnett, Mr. James Hieter, and Ministerial Advisor Rev. Miller Ansell

Diaconate: Mr. Daniel Schrader

“And let us consider one another in order to stir up love and good works, not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as is the manner of some, but exhorting one another, and so much the more as you see the Day approaching.”
(Heb 10:24-25)

Psalm 133:1-3
"How Good and Pleasant Is the Sight"
PSALTER HYMNAL # 133B (1 - 3)
O LORD God of heaven, the great and awesome God who keeps covenant and steadfast love with those who love You and keep Your commandments, let your ear be attentive and your eyes open, to hear the prayer of your servants that we now pray before you, confessing our sins, which we have sinned against you. We have acted very corruptly against you and have not kept the commandments, the statutes, and the rules that you commanded your servant Moses. We are your servants and your people, whom you have redeemed by your great power and by your strong hand. O Lord, let your ear be attentive to the prayer of your servants and grant mercy and forgiveness to Your people today.

Psalm of the Month: Psalm 12:1-8

To the choirmaster: according to The Sheminith. A Psalm of David.
Save, O LORD, for the godly one is gone;
for the faithful have vanished from among the children of man.
Everyone utters lies to his neighbor;
with flattering lips and a double heart they speak.
May the LORD cut off all flattering lips,
the tongue that makes great boasts,
those who say, "With our tongue we will prevail,
our lips are with us; who is master over us?"
"Because the poor are plundered, because the needy groan,
I will now arise," says the LORD;
"I will place him in the safety for which he longs."
The words of the LORD are pure words,
like silver refined in a furnace on the ground,
purified seven times.
You, O LORD, will keep them;
you will guard us from this generation forever.
On every side the wicked prowl,
as vileness is exalted among the children of man.
